SIXTH SUNDAY OF PENTECOST SEASON

Jesus sends out his Apostles

July 14, 2019

When Jesus sends out the twelve he tells them not to take money, food or a bag (eg. luggage) but to accept the hospitality of whomever offers it. This is a blessing: we all can serve the Lord when we welcome each other.

They were not to take anything with them for the Lord would provide through his people. It was both a test and a blessing.

But they would also receive opposition as some towns would not receive them: Leave, and shake off the dust off your feet. In essence Jesus said not to bang your head against a brick wall. If the people didn't want to hear the word, don't try to shove it down their throat. Just move on, go somewhere else where the people would be more receptive.

Pray For

Please call the parish office to inform us of an illness or hospitalization of a parishioner or family member. If you would like to add or remove your name or a relative's name from our prayer list, please contact us.

Bible Verse

Jesus summoned the twelve and sent them out two by two,
And gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

Mark 6:7

Psalm 25

O Lord; teach me your paths. And make me to know your ways,
Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation;
For you I wait all day long. Be mindful of your mercy, O Lord,
Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions;
But according to your steadfast love remember me, for your goodness' sake, O Lord!
Good and upright is the Lord; therefore he instructs sinners in the way.
He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.
All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness. Alleluia

From the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 12: 12-27

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, "Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say, "Because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you," nor again the head to the feet, "I do not need you." there should be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. 26 If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy. Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it.

From the Gospel according to Mark 6:7-13

And he summoned the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts— but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. And he said to them, "Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from there. And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent. And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.
