We Are Members of God's Family

This week, our Pre-K and Kindergarten students learned that we are all part of God's family! Through baptism, God calls each of us His children, and everyone we meet is a brother or sister in Christ.

The children talked about how to live as God's family by caring, sharing, forgiving, praying for others, and using kind words.

As members of God's family, we are never alone. God fills our hearts with love and joy to share with others!
