Season of the Holy Cross
Exaltation of the Holy Cross
SEPTEMBER 15, 2019

The foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength. For by the cross we receive our Salvation; thus it is the power of God.

You can't get to heaven by human wisdom and reasoning. If you could, every philosopher would get there. Every form of military might, political power, and financial muscle is useless before the God who made the universe with a word and can destroy it in an instant.

To be saved, we must embrace the cross, the "weakness" of God. Sure, it doesn't make sense to the logical mind obsessed with power. But the cross is the logical outcome of a God who loves the world so much that He would put aside His strength, become vulnerable to our sin, and pay the price for sins He never committed. All for love's sake.

Pray For

Please call the parish office to inform us of an illness or hospitalization of a parishioner or family member. If you would like to add or remove your name or a relative's name from our prayer list, please contact us.

Bible Verse

The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

John 12:23

Psalm 33

Rejoice in the LORD and Praise him. Give thanks to the LORD on the harp;
Sing to him a new song; for He brings justice and peace. And his mercy is upon us.
By the LORD's word and by the breath of his mouth, the heavens were made.
Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all who dwell in the world show him reverence.
Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people chosen as his inheritance.
A king is not saved by a great army, nor a warrior delivered by great strength.
Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear him, those who count on his mercy.
Our soul waits for the LORD, he is our help and shield. In him our hearts rejoice.
In you we trust, O Lord. May your mercy, be upon us; as we put our hope in you. Alleluia

From the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 1:18-25

The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the learning of the learned I will set aside." Where is the wise one? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made the wisdom of the world foolish? For since in the wisdom of God the world did not come to know God through wisdom, it was the will of God through the foolishness of the proclamation to save those who have faith. For Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

From the Holy Gospel according to Saint John 12:20-32

Now there were some Greeks among those who had come up to worship at the feast. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me. "I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it and will glorify it again." The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself."
