Feast of Saint Sharbel

Matthew - 13:36-43 - Romans 8:28-39

Life of Saint Sharbel

Saint Sharbel, born in a small village in Lebanon, to a poor religious family, entered the Maronite Monastery of St. Maroun, (A lebanese Maronite Order) at 23 and was ordained a priest in 1859. He served there for 16 years, then retired to the hermitage of Sts Peter and Paul. Sharbel Lived a severe ascetic life of prayer, mortification and self-denial and had a remarkable devotion to the Eucharist. He had a massive stroke while saying Mass on Christmas Eve and died 7 days later.

For 45 days a bright light surrounded his tomb. the monks exhumed his body and it was found incorrupt.

For approximately 62 years a viscous liquid came from his body. Many miracles are attributed to his intercession.
