Feast of St. Rita of Cascia

A Life of Faith,
Suffering and Love

St. Rita was born in 1381 in Italy. From a young age, she longed to become a nun.

Obedient to God's will, she married and lived a life of patience, love and forgiveness, even in great difficulties.

After the loss of her husband and sons, she entered the Augustinian Convent, where she lived in prayer, penance, and deep union with Christ.

She is known as the "Saint of the Impossible" because of the many graces God granted through her powerful intercession.

"Nothing is impossible with God."

– St. Rita of Cascia

Happy Feast Day! ♥

To all who bear the name of St. Rita, may God bless you abundantly on your feast day!

*"Be not afraid
of anything.
Trust in God;
He will provide."*

– St. Rita of Cascia

— St. Rita of Cascia, —

faithful servant of God, model of perseverance and hope, we humbly ask for your intercession for all our parishioners and their families.

Pray for us in our joys and struggles, that we may always trust in God's love and never lose hope.

Amen.

Through the intercession of St. Rita, may God grant us peace, healing, and every grace we need. ♥
